

Applicants to Master's Course

I. Additional required documents for application

Self-recommendation document (within 1600 words) is additionally required for application. Refer to the required documents for Biosphere Science at Special Selected Candidate Entrance Examination (Guidelines for applicants, p 5).

Submit the self-recommendation document as an attached file to e-mail address below by July 31.

*TOEFL, TOEIC or IELTS Score sheet is optional. See below (II.,1 Foreign language).

II. Change in the methods for the entrance examination

1. Foreign language

- 1) Evaluate proficiency in English based on the self-recommendation document and an interview on related subjects during the online examination (Metric 1).
- 2) If an external English exam score is submitted, the score will be converted by a formula specified by the division and compared to the score resulting from Metric 1. The higher score of the two will be used.

2. Specialized subjects

Online examination asking specialized subjects by the examiners.

3. Oral examination

Online examination asking questions on the self-recommendation document and the related subjects by the examiners.

About online examination

Applicants should prepare a computer available to use online meeting system equipped with speaker, microphone and camera.

Applicants should take the online examination in a private room where no one else is in the room.

A test for connection will be set prior to the online examination.

Details for the online examination will be announced by the return envelope with the examination admission ticket.

Inquiries to: envsci[at]ees.hokudai.ac.jp

Applicants to Doctoral Course

I. Additional required documents for application

Self-recommendation document (an overview of research undertaken to date, reason for application and a research topic or plan one wish to undertake in this graduate school within 1600 words) is additionally required for application.

Submit the self-recommendation document as an attached file to e-mail address below by July 31.

*TOEFL, TOEIC or IELTS Score sheet is optional. See below.

II. Change in the methods for the entrance examination

1. Foreign language

- 1) Evaluate proficiency in English based on both the self-recommendation document and an interview on related subjects during the online examination (Metric 1).
- 2) If an external English exam score is submitted, the score will be converted by a formula specified by the division and compared to the score resulting from Metric 1. The higher score of the two will be used.

2. Oral examination

Online examination as is indicated at p 6 in the guidelines for applicants.

About online examination

Applicants should prepare a computer available to use online meeting system equipped with speaker, microphone and camera.

Applicants should take the online examination in a private room where no one else is in the room.

A test for connection will be set prior to the online examination.

Details for the online examination will be announced by the return envelope with the examination admission ticket.

Inquiries to: envsci[at]ees.hokudai.ac.jp